TALK OF THE TOWN

William Starr of New York City arrived yesterday to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Starr, of Perrin street.

Mrs. Andrew Bianchi and two daughters of Prospect avenue went last night to Quincy, Mass., to visit with Mrs. Bianchi's mother for two weeks.

Mrs. Elvin Perkins of Quebec has been the guest of Mrs. Frederick Mills of 17 Academy street for several days and this morning returned to her home.

E. S. Malvern, who a week ago came to visit his daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. R. Malvern of Laurel street, started on his return trip to Norfolk, Va., this morning.

William Mercer and William Craig, employed in the postoffice, and James C. Johnston, rural mail carrier for route No. 3, have been released for their summer vacations.

At the Barre Golf club, there will be no tournament July 4, but instead a special tournament of 36 holes, match play, will take place Saturday, July 5. This may be played off during any time of the day.

Mrs. Margaret W. Deland, author, will speak before the Vermont Library association this evening, July 2, at the Montpelier high school auditorium. The topic will be "Spirit of the Women in France." A cordial invitation is extended by the association to all who desire to hear her.

Brislain Palmer was arrested and brought into municipal court yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock on a warrant issued by Grand Juror A. S. Sargent, charging him with non-support of his wife. The case was set aside for another hearing July 24. R. A. Hoar was retained as his counsel.

At 5 o'clock Friday morning the doors of the Knights of Columbus lodge rooms will be thrown open wide ready to welcome every soldier, sailor, marine with his friends or relatives. Preparations are being made to provide ample entertainment for all who may wish to come there and access to anything in the rooms will be free to the boys.

Illumination for the Victory arch, which is rapidly approaching completion north of City square, called forth admiring comment from the crowds of people who gathered from time to time to watch the progress on the construction work. It is expected that the structure, with decorations, will be practically completed by to-night.

Outdoor dancing is one of the novelties to be provided free of charge on the night of Barre's homecoming celebration July 4. A dancing plaza, extending from Merchant street to West street on the smooth paving on North Main street will be roped off, and an orchestra of 14 pieces will play. The paving will be specially treated in advance with corn meal and sawdust, thereby insuring a smooth surface on which to dance.

Many merchants are co-operating splendidly with the celebration decoration committee, and already a number of shop windows have been attractively decorated. Street decoration will be entirely in the hands of the professional decorators, although merchants as well as householders are urged to display their flags and service banners. Lodges having headquarters in the various blocks along North Main street are asked to display their service flags and Old Glory.

While attempting to stop a pair of horses that had become frightened and ran out of the yard, Mrs. Nellie E. Roben of the east hill suffered injuries that will confine her to the house for several weeks. As the horses started to run, Mrs. Roben made a grab for the reins, but could not keep up with the pace of the horses and was thrown to the ground, striking heavily on her left shoulder. Dr. M. L. Chandler was called and upon examination found that the shoulder had been fractured. He reduced the fracture and Mrs. Roben is to-day resting as comfortably as could be expected.

In trying to avert a collision with a team driven by Mrs. O'Grady of Berlin yesterday afternoon on the Montpelier road, L. B. Dodge of this city jammed his car against a stone wall, resulting in two badly bent front mudguards and a defective steering gear. The team sustained but slight damage to one of the front wheels and was capable of continuing on its journey. Mr. Dodge's runabout car had to be towed to Perry's garage. The automobile was proceeding along the right side of the road, and when about to make the bend just north of the Tenney Service power plant on the Montpelier road, met the team. Realizing that the collision could not be wholly averted, Mr. Dodge turned against the wall, where his machine was brought suddenly to a halt. Since he was driving rather slowly the occupants of either vehicle sustained any injury and the damage done was mostly to the car.

Instructed by the federal director at Montpelier to close the U. S. employment office and to send immediately all the material necessary to conduct the work, George N. Tilden complied with the request yesterday afternoon and had the equipment stored or shipped by the late afternoon of yesterday. This morning a telephone call from the state inspector informed him that Congress had passed the appropriation bill to carry on this work and to begin operations for opening another office like that conducted last winter in the Morse block. Though that office closed March 15, Mr. Tilden continued to place discharged soldiers in various positions and continued the work until yesterday. A great amount of good has been accomplished, especially for the soldiers and sailors. The new office will be operated on the same plane as that of before, but the location has not yet been decided upon.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Best choice in taffetas, silk poplins and georgette crepes, in all the latest shades. Little Dry Goods Store, 5 Cottage street, off Main street.

Miss Amy L. Huggard, teacher in the deaf mute school in Malone, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Berton J. Lehigh of 27 Franklin street, for the summer.

School children between the ages of 6 and 14 with flags or novelties, in ordinary or varied costumes, who wish to be in the parade July 4 report to Eva G. Smith and assistants at Currier park at 9:30 sharp, Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Gustafson of Washington street began this morning a week's business tour through Vermont and New York states by automobile. With them went Miss Hilda Martinson of Perrin street, who will visit for a time with friends in New York City.

The Baptist Sunday school held a very successful picnic at Benjamin Falls yesterday in the afternoon. Many games were played until supper time, when all gathered for the most jolly supper hour enjoyed in a long time. After supper a ball game was arranged which proved an interesting feature of the evening, as many men played the game that have not played in years. The Sunday school served ice cream to the youngsters. About one hundred and twenty-five were present to enjoy the afternoon.

The entire half-mile oval at the Granite City trotting park that many times was the scene of a spectacular horse race has been repaired to some extent and now bears an improved appearance since the steam roller pressed it into better form. Contestants for the bicycle and motorcycle races on the Fourth have been testing their speed on the old race course and agree that everything is in fine condition for the day. A rather extraordinary vehicle put in its appearance yesterday when A. M. Landars came rolling along the course with an old-fashioned double-framed bicycle. This article with two seats, handlebars and two sets of peddles is borne up by one set of sturdy wheels that will have a place in the grand celebration parade Friday. This forerunner of motorcycles and side cars is a well preserved piece of machinery that 25 years ago would demand a price almost as great as the modern bicycle.

MONTPELIER

The Capital City grange will hold a meeting in Odd Fellows' hall Thursday evening, and following a short business meeting they will go to the home of Miss Anna Griffin, where a lawn party will be given and refreshments served.

Public dance, Howland hall, Barre, July 3; special music by Gilbertson's orchestra. Dancing 8 to 1; gents $1, ladies free.—adv.

Seven of the Montpelier baseball team will play with the Moretown town team this year. These include Catcher Grandfield, Pitcher Dubs, Coach Melvin, Fielders, Baseman Ward, Fielder Griffith and Shortstop Granai. The team stands ready to meet fast teams from this section of the state.

Mrs. C. P. Pitkin, Mrs. G. D. Pitkin and baby and Miss Mary Kane went to Thompson's Point Tuesday. They will enjoy camping.

Mrs. Caroline Wilder has deeded her house on Hubbard street to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Curtis, the record of which was filed yesterday in the city clerk's office.

Arthur Rogers, who has been in jail since last Friday, after the arrest charging him with stealing the bicycle of G. O. Boyles in front of his store, appeared in city court Tuesday afternoon, changing his plea of not guilty to that of guilty and was given a sentence of 60 days in county jail. Arthur Cook, at whose house a man left the machine, identified Mr. Rogers as the man. The bicycle was recovered.

Guy Downs is home from Camp Mills for a furlough of two weeks. He is slowly recovering the use of his arm which was shattered by a shell in France.

Philip Spencer has completed his work for the Western Union company here and gone to Loon Lake, N. Y., where he will be operator at a hotel this summer. His place is taken by Operator Fisher of Burlington.

Philip Goodenough is enjoying a furlough with relatives here. He is at a sanatorium in the Catskill mountains, recovering his health, having contracted tuberculosis in the army after illness of pneumonia.

Ingeniously showed itself in Montpelier last night when four men who apparently did not get enough liquor before the drought commenced, tapped the bottom of the silo at the Harris farm Tuesday evening with the result that they entertained the neighbors for some time and then took a "convenient" nap from the effects of the corn liquid that ran out of the silo.

The will of James C. Allen of Barre City has been presented for probate in probate court in Montpelier.

Mrs. Neal Templeton of North-Montpelier is taking the place of Miss Lamperti as stenographer in the office of Theriault and Hunt, while the latter is on a vacation.

W. C. Theriault is in Windsor on legal matters.
